IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF WYOMING

ERIK PRINCE,

Plaintiff,

VS.

Case No. 20-CV-84-ABJ

THE INTERCEPT, a New York company,
FIRST LOOK MEDIA WORKS, INC., a
Delaware corporation, MATTHEW
COLE, and individual, and ALEX
EMMONS, an individual,

Defendants.

ORDER ON SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEFING

THIS MATTER comes before the Court on Defendants' Motion to Dismiss. ECF No. 18. In Plaintiff's response, he raised the issue of transferring the case or permitting jurisdictional discovery in the event the Court has concerns about personal jurisdiction. ECF No. 23. Rather than having a hearing on these issues, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Court orders both parties to submit supplemental briefing on the issue of transfer and jurisdictional discovery. Plaintiff has until November 30, 2020 to file a supplemental brief on the issue and Defendants will have 14 days from the date of Plaintiff's filing to submit a response.

Dated this 5th day of November, 2020.

Alan B. Johnson

United States District Judge
